Yellow warning
Rain

Between 06:00 Thu 19 Oct 2023 and
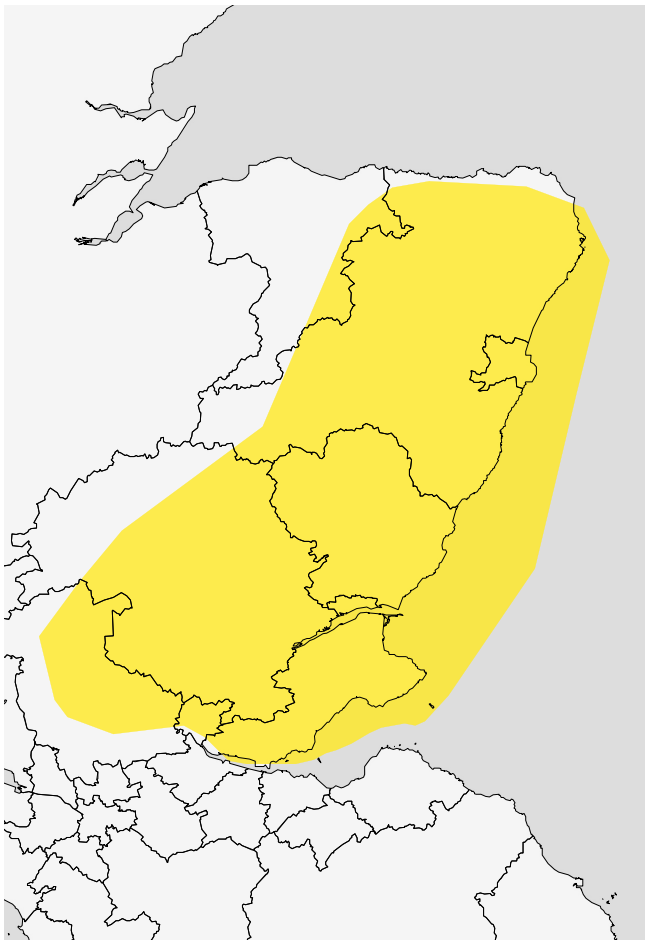
23:59 Sat 21 Oct 2023



Another spell of heavy rain will bring further flooding to parts of eastern and northern Scotland.

What to expect

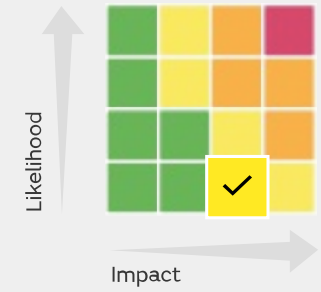
- Spray and flooding could lead to difficult driving conditions and some road closures
- Where flooding occurs, there is a chance of delays or cancellations to train and bus services
- There is a small chance that homes and businesses could be flooded, causing damage to some buildings
- There is a slight chance of power cuts and loss of other services to some homes and businesses
- There is a small chance of fast-flowing or deep floodwater, and communities being cut off by flooded roads

Further details

A further spell of heavy, prolonged and disruptive rainfall is expected through Saturday. Accumulations of 50 to 100 mm are expected across parts of northern and eastern Scotland throughout this period.

Separate Amber and Red warnings are in place for parts of northern and eastern Scotland where higher rainfall amounts are expected to lead to greater impacts.

The rain will be accompanied by very strong easterly winds across parts of Scotland, which could exacerbate impacts.



Very low likelihood of medium impacts
